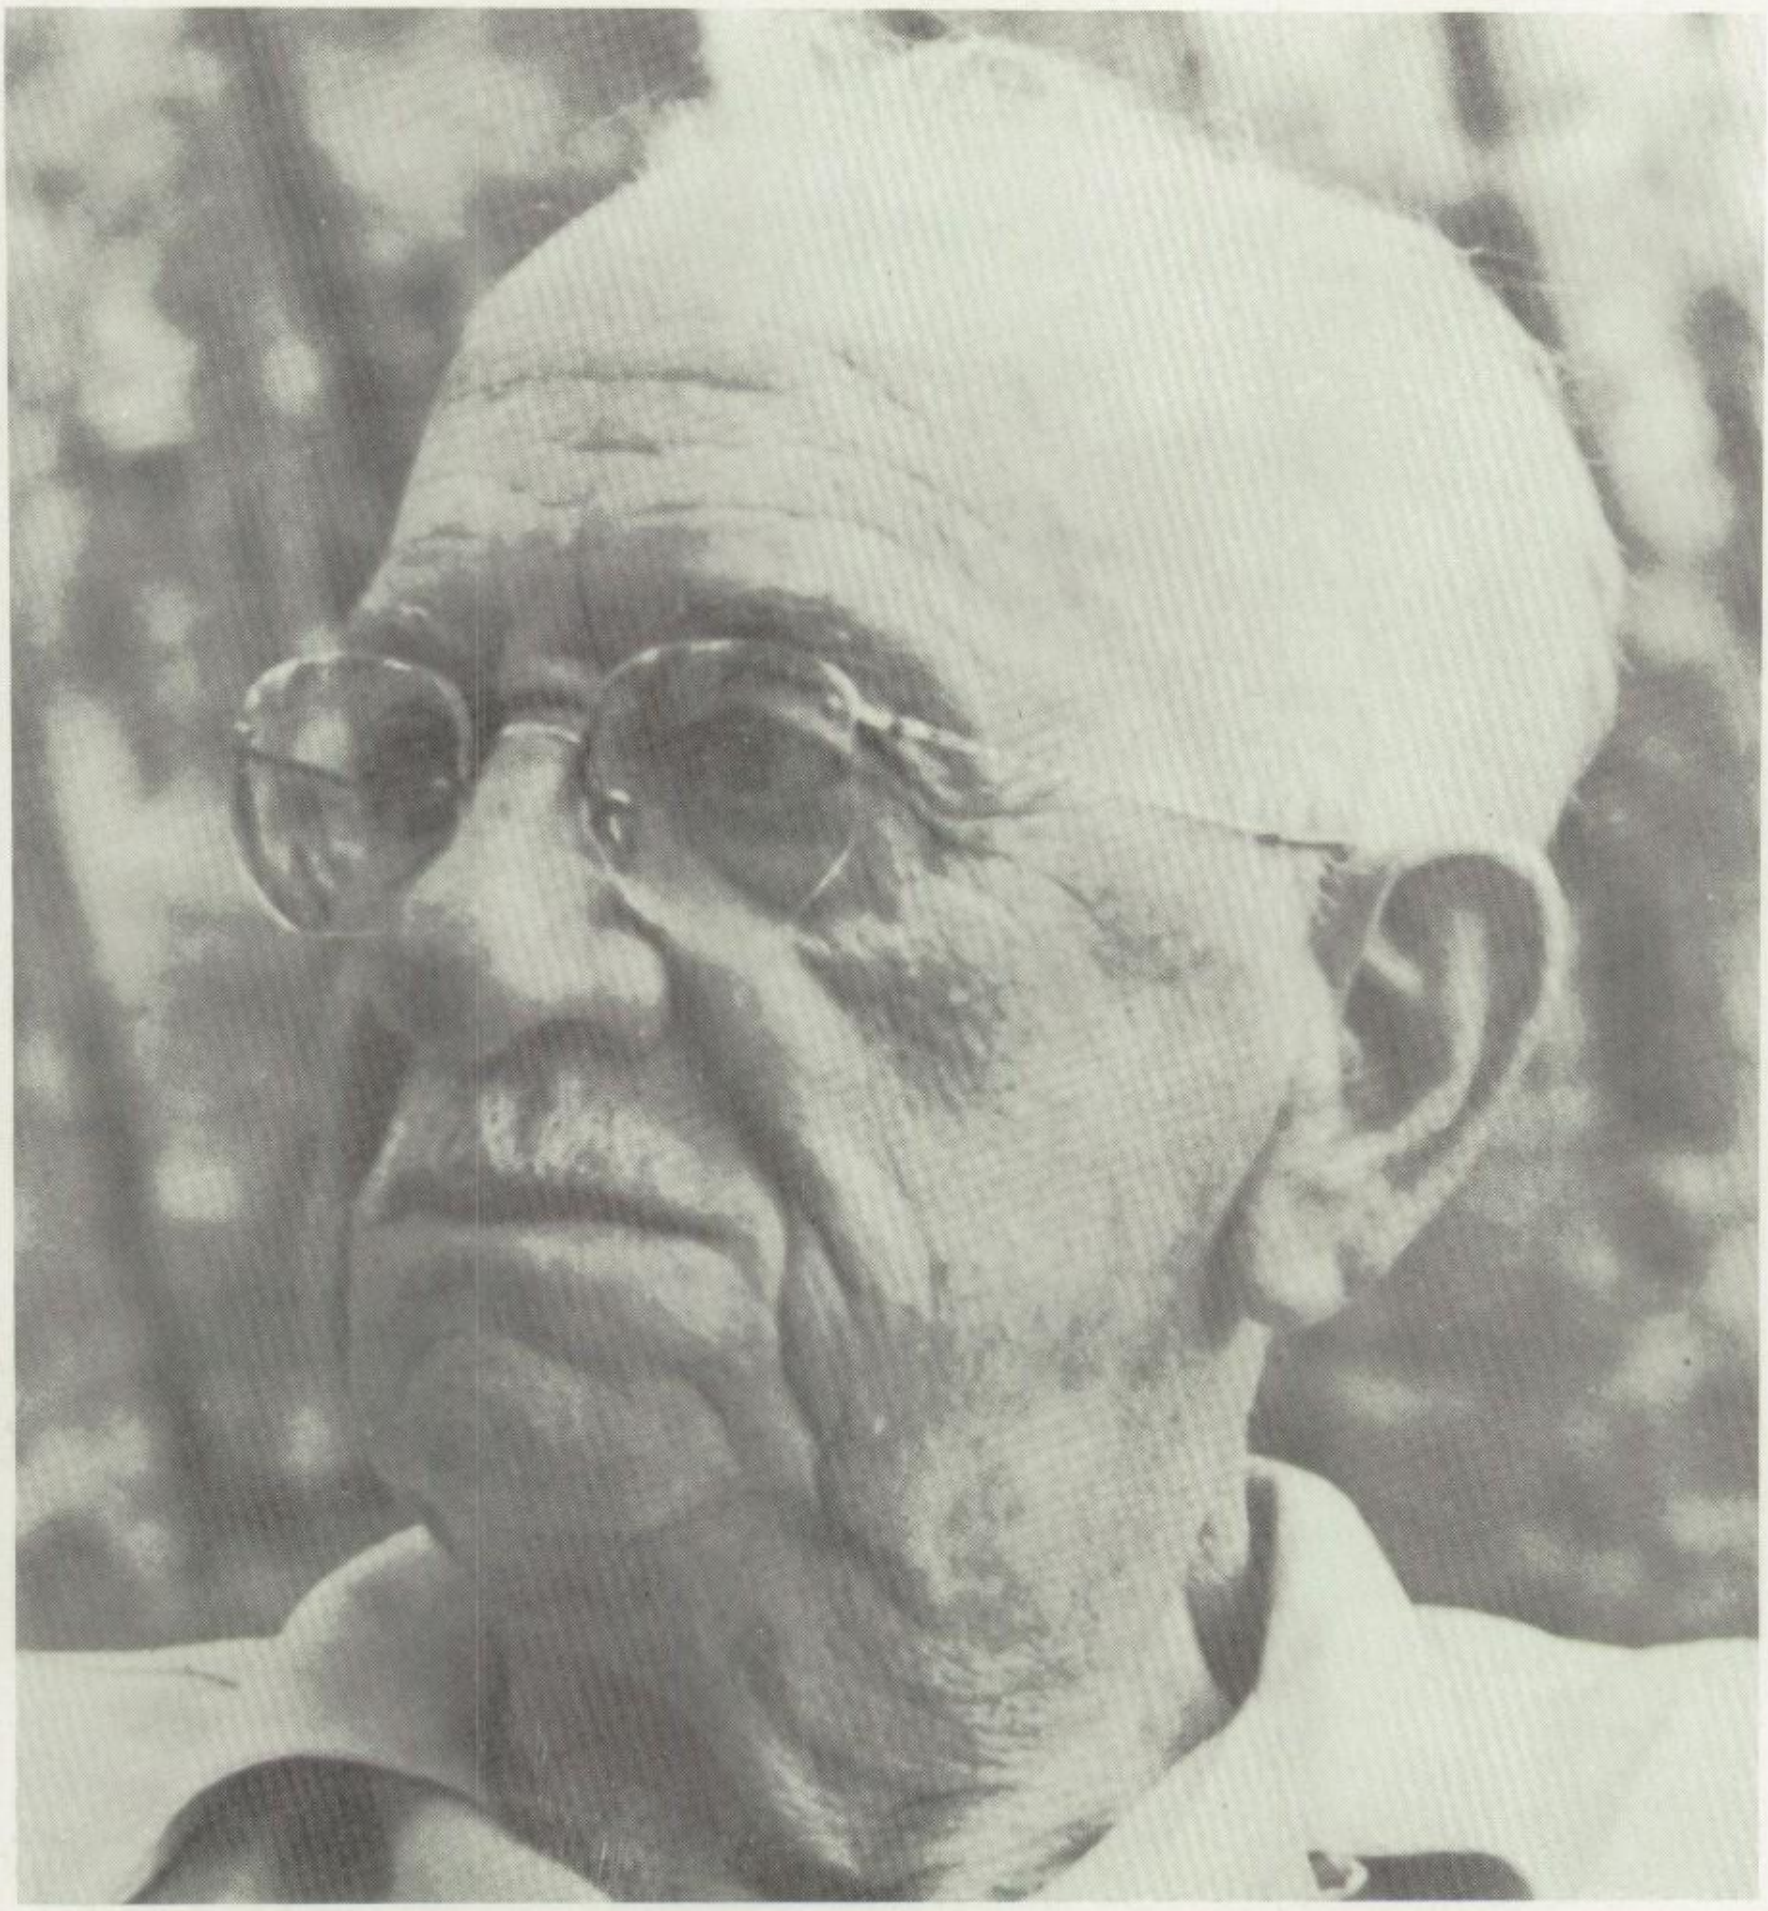
IN MEMORIUM



Dr. Walter C. Swartout was the beloved school physician of the North Muskegon Public Schools for thirty-seven years, ending with his death in September, 1956.

For these years Dr. Swartout's single job was to guard the health of North Muskegon School children. He was always faithful to this task and was always eager to cooperate with all in keeping our good health. To this mission he was continually dedicated, and his unfailing patience, his comprehension of youth, his courteous manner and his kindness and interest gained for him the devotion and trust of all.

To Dr. Walter C. Swartout, in grateful and sorrowful appreciation, the Annual Staff of North Muskegon High School humbly expresses its thanks.

"OUR HEARTS WERE YOUNG AND GAY."

JUNIOR PLAY OF '56

A comedy in three acts entitled "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," written by Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough, was the Junior Play presentation in 1956. The authors tell the story of their own first trip to Paris.

Many hours of direction were spent by Mr. Milton Hedlund, assisted by Lois Funnell as student director. The play was acted to a 'full house' both nights, and it was enthusiastically received by the entire audience, who clapped very loudly.

Seventeen people made up the cast for this amusing play. Linnea Swartz was outstanding as Cornelia Otis Skinner, who wanted to become an actress and took several acting lessons which put her in many hilarious situations. Nancy Clink did equally well as Emily Kimbrough, the devoted friend of Cornelia who tried to smooth out her friend's difficulties and as a result got into many of her own. Playing the male lead opposite the girls were Pete Sheldon as Dick Winters and Bob Kersman as Leo McEvoy. The comic role of Monsieur De La Croix was taken by Mike Hinkin. Mrs. Skinner was portrayed by Mary Lee Foote and her husband, Otis Skinner, was enacted by Jim Damm. The steward of the ship was Bob Behling and the stewardess was Kay Warshauer. Dorothy Linau, as Madame Elise, did an excellent job with her role. The admiral was played by Don Fries. Taking the part of the purser was Allen Kueny. Don Harris provided many laughs for the audience as the window cleaner. Carol Guy portrayed Therese.

Janet McKinnon played Harriet St. John. The part of Winifred Blaugh was enacted by Phyllis Knoll. Jackie Hulbert portrayed the inspector.

Handling the technical aspects of the production were the following:

Setting: Sam Cline, Jim McNiff, Dorothy Linau, Ann Pierson, Nancy Clink, Mary Lee Foote, Bob Prins, and Ray Olson. Lighting and sound was taken care of by Lee Witt and Jim McNiff.

Properties were in the hands of: Arlene Cilla, Pat Karl, Marilyn Arseneau, Kathy Syers, Jackie Bennett, and Mary Young.

Pat Dean and Susan Sanford were in charge of wardrobe.

The make-up crew was composed of: Naomi Lillie, Mary Matych, and the second year speech class.

Publicity was arranged by: Janet McKinnon, Carol Guy, Jackie Hulbert, and Susan Sanford.

The sale of tickets was in charge of: Louise Munz, Jackie Allen, June Wynne, Pat Barnhardt, Bob Lillie, and Susan Sanford.

Time and hard work went into making the Junior Class play a huge success, and all have a right to be proud for it is one to be remembered by many in the years to come!

HISTORY OF THE JEAN BAPTISTE RECOLLECT CHAPTER

The Jean Baptiste Recollect Chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in North Muskegon High School on February 14, 1945, under the sponsorship of Mr. Kelly Dunsmore.

National Honor Society Chapters traditionally select as their chapter names, the name of an early pioneer or local figure who has made an important contribution to the community in years past. The North Muskegon High School Chapter selected as its chapter name that of Jean Baptiste Recollect, the first permanent white settler in North Muskegon. Recollect erected a trading post in 1812 on the shores of Bear Lake, from which he did business with the Indians of the territory.

Recently the Honor Society has undertaken such projects as: a Student Help program through which members of the chapter give up time during their study halls to help students who are experiencing difficulty in their courses, the donation of blood to the Red Cross, supervised recreation for the Childrens' Home, and a donation of fifty dollars and a bookshelf of 90 books to the Korean Fund.

This past year the society has undertaken the sponsorship of an Improvement Award, to be presented to the sophomore student who has shown the most scholastic improvement over his freshman year.

MUSIC

The Music Department really outdid themselves this year. Mr. Strouf, his seventh year of conducting the Senior Band and Mr. Wunch, his first year of conducting the Junior Band, did a wonderful job. The Marching Band was very successful and the Concert Bands sounded better than ever. Mr. Strouf also directed the Choir. It was a larger organization than in previous years and everyone agreed that Mr. Strouf did a fine job. The Winter Concert on January 24 was the best concert ever performed by the North Muskegon Bands. They played an extremely difficult concert this year. The Choir joined the Senior Band on the last number for "They Call It America." Besides the concert, the Bands and Choir entered festivals where they were rated by top men in the music field.

Baseball

The 1957 edition of the North Muskegon baseball squad will be a copy of the 1956 Norse. With the exception of Ron Simonelli, there will be an experienced player at each position. Bill Garber, who saw action with senior Don Harris, will have the inside track as catcher. Mike Hinkin will be at first base when Ron Farmer is pitching. Pete Sheldon, a three year veteran, will be at second, with Jerry Johnson at shortstop. The outfield will see veterans at each position with Chuck Coverly, Jim Damm and Al Beauchamp as hold-overs from last year. Third base is the only position that will need filling by a new comer.

The Norsemen will pick up a new opponent this year in Fremont, a strong team from the Ken-O-Wa League. The remainder of the schedule will be the same as last year's.

Track

Don Berry, John Bohach, Sam Hughes, and Bill McIntyre are the lettermen on our track team this year. Although we didn't win any matches last year, we did score high in certain events, the trouble came in not winning enough second and third places.

We predict this year's team to be more well-rounded, with some of the following taking second and third honors:

Don Berry, John Bohach, Sam Hughes, Bill McIntyre, Frank Moran, Charles Owen, Dave Harpold, Lee Berry, Gary Parisi, Tom Cousineau, Dick Wilson, Dave Fleckenstein, John Walker, Fred Ward, Gerry Van Nortwick, Chester Broner, Larry Johnson, Leonard Ward, Dick Overkamp, Joe Mierendorf, Harry Weissert, Randy Markham, Dave McLaughlin, Chuck Parrish, Roger Sipmann, Bill Clark, Bob Morrison, Gary Groner, Kennith Karata, Bob Cihak, and Dennis Kozzerk.

Our golf team, which has existed since 1949, has set an excellent record. In the past two years, we have won twenty of the twenty-four games we've played.

The four main men on last year's team, Kampenga, Cilla, Prins, and Bond, had a stroking average, together of 91.3, which helps to maintain our winning streak.

Last year, there were ten members on the team. Although we don't know for sure who will be on the golf team, we hope that they will carry on the winning streak that has been set for them.

The construction of new tennis courts behind the school makes possible the reappearance of tennis as an organized sport at North Muskegon. 1950 was the last year that saw blue and gold netmen in action, for it was the following year that the Board of Education found it necessary to replace the old tennis courts with the present elementary building.

After a few years of rebuilding, the Norsemen Netters hope to regain the fame that was once won for North Muskegon on the tennis courts.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR Homer Van Hoesen.

"Mr. Van Hoesen! What's he doing in the Sports Section?"

"For the many of you that don't know, Mr. Van Hoesen is our athletic director."

"Athletic director! What's that?"

"Have you ever thought who gets the referees, who pays all the expenses connected with sports,—yes, there are expenses—who sees to the selling of tickets and contacting of officials, who makes arrangements for the boys' physicals, and who keeps all the paper work connected with sports?"

"Mr. Van Hoesen?"

"Right! So you see why he's in the sports section? He is vitally important to the sports activities at North Muskegon High School."

NORTH MUSKEGON

WINS DISTRICT SEMI-FINALS

The North Muskegon basketball squad won its first tournament game since 1945 by downing Sparta 52-49. The Norse five got off to an early lead and by the half, it looked like an easy victory for the Norse with Pete Sheldon leading both teams in points.

The third quarter went to Sparta, mostly at the free throw line and the weakened Norse defense.

With forty-nine seconds remaining in the battle, the Norse were leading by two points. Jim Sibson was jumping for the Norse. When the ball was jumped, Jim Damm made a nice steal for a big play of the game. A free throw, made by Pete Sheldon, cinched the victory for the Norse.

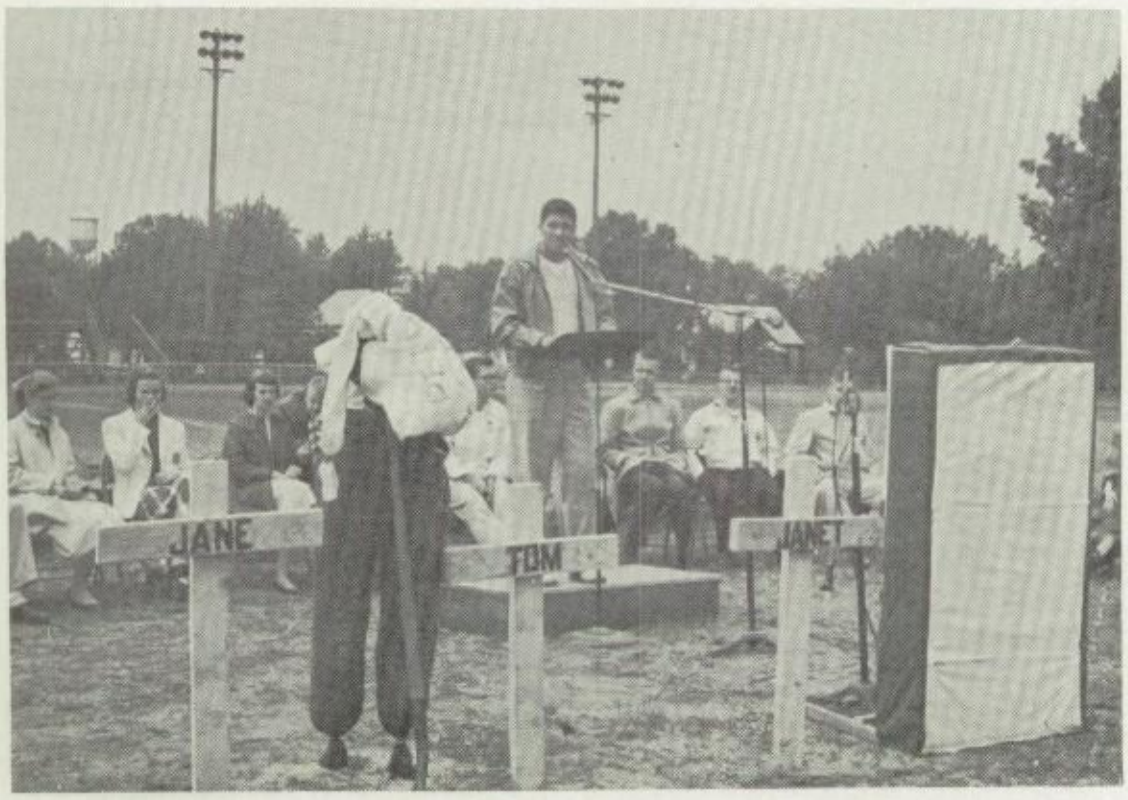
Easy on him girls; he still may be alive. The fight doesn't begin until later.



Goodness! Is this the destination of all speakers?

After a rousing campaign, students discussed the potentialities of each candidate.

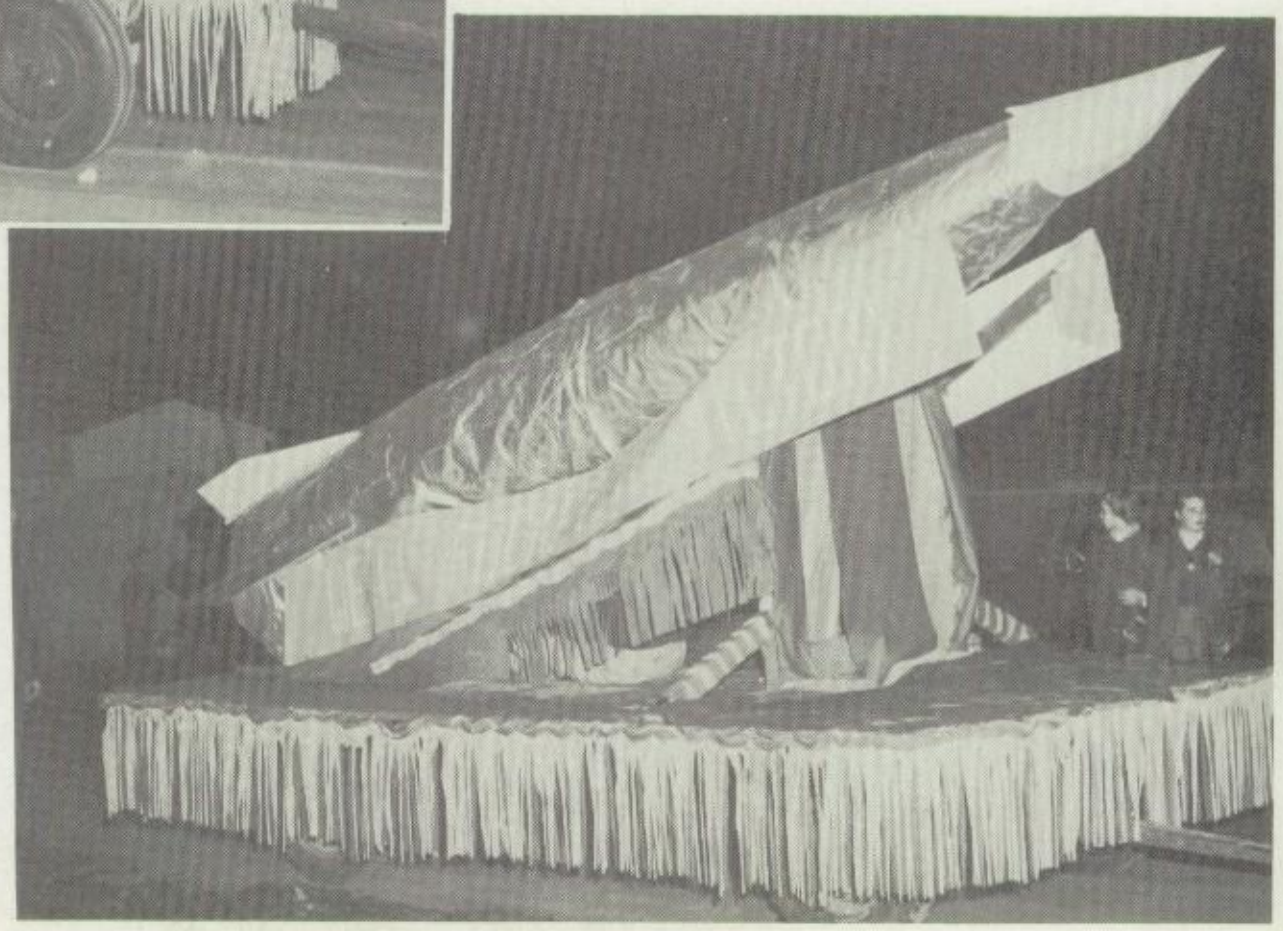
Willing bystanders carry the sophomore candidates back to school.

Why girls, to what lengths must you go to win the election?

Our senior float, which won second place, predicted the future of the homecoming game and the games yet to be played.

The juniors this year expressed the idea that our team was going to play a whale of a game.

Perhaps it was the sophomore drum, drumming out the cry "Beat Shelby", that spurred our Norsemen on to win.



The jet-age is here to stay, and our freshmen came up with a very clever float, which captured first place.

At the pre-game bonfire, our queen received her crown and robe for the evening. l. to r. Annegret Hemmer, Sue Farris, Jane Farris, Marijo Ryan.

Annegret Hemmer, our lovely queen, sits on her throne at the successful homecoming dance.

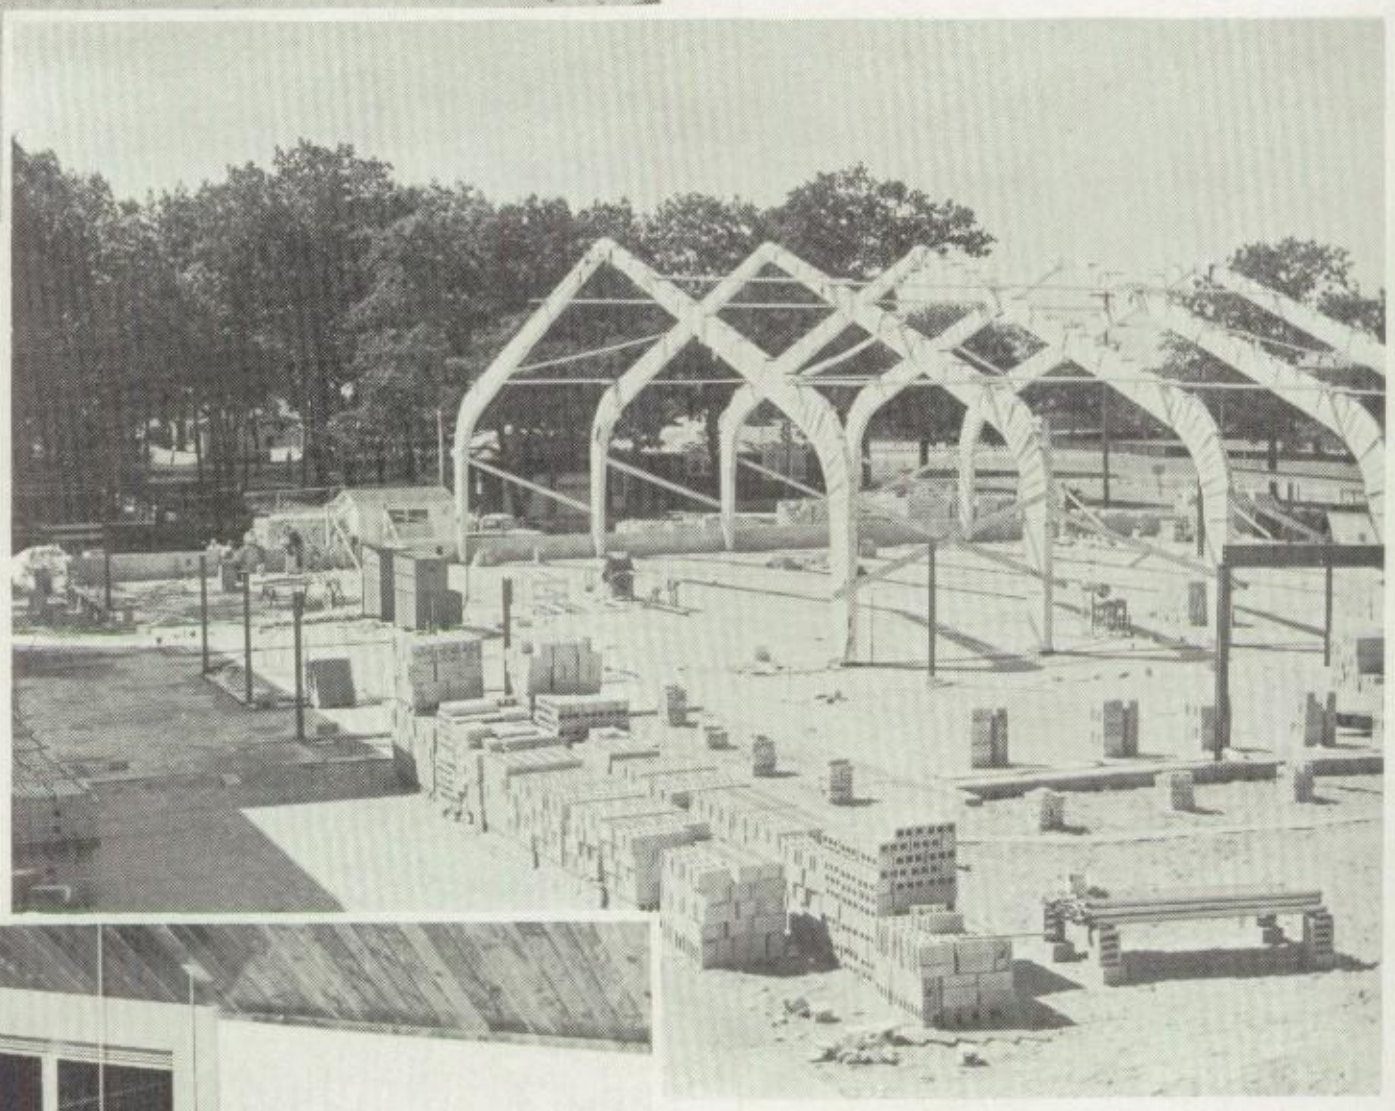
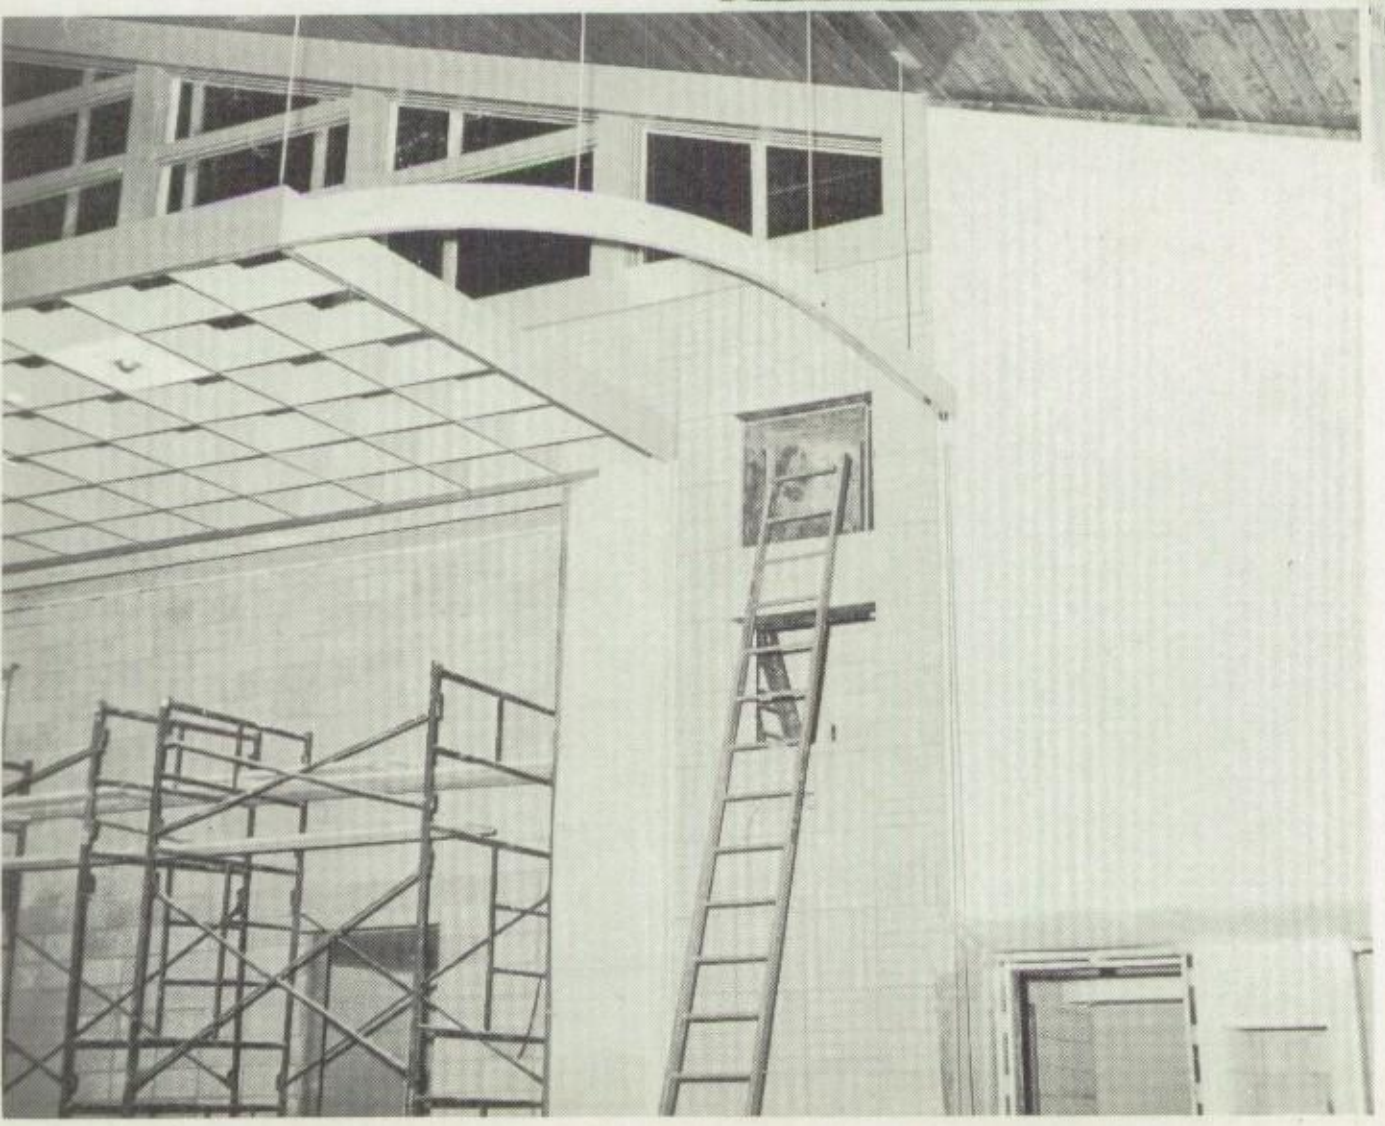
Construction of our new gym began with the removal of trees last spring.



During the summer of 1956, the gym progressed from a treeless lot to a framework.



Winter months brought the construction to the completion of the interior.

By the arrival of spring the gym was in the final stages of construction.

A beautiful completed library awaited our arrival at the beginning of the school year.

Although few in number this year, our dances were well attended.

Usually the couples danced but sometimes they just stood and talked.

HOME OF ZEPHYR GASOLINE

Heaven knows!

WORK TAKES WINGS with a wonderful new Gas range! Top burners, oven, broiler — all light without matches.

DIVINELY ACCURATE automatic thermostats on new Gas ovens set and keep any exact heat ... from 250° to 550°.

CELESTIAL BAKING—Only the air-circulated Gas oven gives you such uniform baking ... such even browning.

"GUARDIAN ANGEL" clock control cooks complete oven meal by itself...turns Gas on and off ... automatically.

GLORIOUS BROILING from rare-and-juicy to "done through." Gas broilers are smokeless ... require no pre-heating.

BLISSFUL COOLNESS—No lingering heat after Gas is off. Extra-insulation makes cooking cooler—thriftier.

OF US

Not soon to be forgotten, this year of 1957. Graduation, a wonderful sense of achievement for a job well done.

That same sense of achievement for us, too. For it was more than 50 years ago that BROWNE-MORSE started manufacturing, in this community, America's finest office furniture. BROWNE-MORSE "grew up" with your fathers and mothers, has been satisfying America's office needs since.

Once again, then, congratulations, and our most sincere wishes that the best may be yours in life's journey ahead.
